NEIGHBOURHOOD WATCH WEEK

5 - 12 NOVEMBER

The first Neighbourhood Watch Week will start on 5 November.

The week will start with a national co-ordinators conference in London. Crime Concern will organise the week, including a Neighbourhood Watch Medal scheme to recognise outstanding service by co-ordinators.

Neighbourhood Watch is an important part of crime prevention and something which everybody can be involved in.

Neighbourhood Watch has been the most effective method of involving the general public in crime prevention for over a decade. It encourages the development of safe and caring communities.

There are now over 2500 Neighbourhood Watch schemes in the county covering almost 270000 households.

Since its launch in the 1980's Neighbourhood Watch has proved to be a great success. There are now over 130,000 Neighbourhood Watch schemes in England and Wales covering over 5 million households.

Numerous offshoot schemes have developed from the original idea, including Farm Watch, Boat Watch, Pub Watch, Church Watch, Hospital Watch and even Plane Watch.
