

Ashton Churchyard needs your help

We are looking for Volunteers to give up some of their time to help with maintaining the churchyard. Brian Skinner has for many years maintained the churchyard single-handedly to a high standard; no easy task, so many thanks to Brian. This year Brian asked for some help with this role and the church employed contractors to help cut the grass and what a difference that has made.

The church is the focal point within the village and a very peaceful place to visit. However the churchyard is now in need of some tender loving care to bring it back to it's previous standard and to keep it there.

Do you think you could help? Can you spare a little of your time occasionally to assist with this work.

If so, please contact:
